WEDDING AND JARNAGIN

Arouse the Voters of Fordsville With Patriotic Appeals for Party Success.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN: Judge R. R. Wedding and Hon. R. C. Jarnagin made two stirring speeches to a large crowd of voters here Saturday. The speaking had only been announced a few days and many of the country people failed to learn of the appointment. Nevertheless quite a crowd of enthusiastic citizens greeted the speakers.

Judge Wedding's speech was especially interesting and full of logical reasoning. He said: "I was agreed by all—Democrats as well as Republicans—that McKinley's policy was the best for the country, and yet these fellows ask the people to elect them and change the policy of the government." The Judge paid his respects to Judge Miller and his record and when he had concluded his tribute to Miller, there was not a "greasy spot" left.

Judge Wedding urged that it was the duty of all Republicans to stand out boldly for the present Republican ticket and be sure to go out and vote early and forever bury the Democratic bones.

Mr. Jarnagin's speech was interesting and full of Republicanism. He reviewed the history of the Democratic party in Kentucky, and the outrageous contest, both speeches were well received and Fordsville will do the proper thing on the 5th of November. Trusting, hoping and praying that the people all over the county may hear Judge Wedding's earnest plea for success of the entire ticket and the downfall of the decayed, degenerated Democracy. Hurrah for the boys that are not afraid to defend their principles. OKR OF THE BOYS Fordsville, Sept. 30

THOMAS CHASES MILLER TO THE WALL WITH FACTS AND FIGURES.

Knocks Him Out in the First Round.

Shows the Judge up in His True Light—His Statements False and Misleading.

Hartford, Ky., Oct. 3, 1901. Sometime ago, in order to further his interest as a candidate for County Judge, my old friend and fellow-citizen, Jas. P. Miller, brought out a card purporting to give a financial statement of Ohio county. I was acting clerk of the Ohio Fiscal Court at the time the county bonds were authorized and sold and wrote all the orders of that court in regard to that transaction. As such clerk I was perhaps more familiar with the financial condition of the county than Mr. Miller, and when I saw his card I was amused at his reckless and profligate disregard of facts, and went to the record of the Fiscal Court and copied from the record the statements on my card. I did Mr. Miller the fairness to put his statement on my card along with mine and gave them wide circulation. Our statements differ widely, but fortunately the record from which my statement is taken is a public one and every voter in Ohio county who entertains any doubts about which one of us is correct in this matter is urged to come to the County Court Clerk's office and consult the record. I could not conceive a fairer way to treat a political opponent who had made a false and misleading public statement than to put his statement and my correction on the same card and give them circulation and let the people, who have access to the record, determine from the record whose statement is correct. Mr. Miller devotes two columns of a recent issue of the Hartford Herald to my card without retelling a single statement of mine or calling on the people to examine the record of the Fiscal Court for themselves.

Mr. Miller says I failed to inform the court how many bonds should have been issued. Perhaps I did; but I knew the presiding officer of that court was slow to take advice of his clerk, and, in fact, of the members of his court for those who have been connected with that court know that the Judge is the whole show till he runs up against something solid when he calls upon the County Attorney to help him over. But it is easy to prove that a greater amount of bonds were sold than necessary by calling attention to the fact that twenty-six days after the bonds were sold bonds to the amount of $5,000 were paid off. If this amount was not actually paid out of proceeds of the bond sale, it was in sight and bonds to the amount of $5,000 only should have been issued. Mr. Miller objects to my adding $1,550 for building from treasuries on levies to the indebtedness of the county. Again Mr. Miller misrepresents. This debt, while payable out of levy of 1901, was contracted before the levy of the present year was made, and is no more chargeable to the revenues of this year than any part of the county bonds which might fall due this year. And while on this subject I find by examining the contract referred to by Mr. Miller, that the contract price was only $1,300, but when Judge Miller, who was appointed a commissioner to receive the work reported and had allowed to the contractors $1,550. Just where the extra $250 went I do not know, perhaps the Judge does.

I care nothing for Mr. Miller's brief, but brutal thrust which the Herald so generously capitalizes, but will explain why I went to Judge Miller and told him he should support the Republican ticket. I have always taken an enthusiastic interest in the success of my party and whenever I found a voter who seemed undecided about his future political course I have tried to induce him to join fortunes with the Republican party. Mr. Miller's politics at that time were generally considered an uncertain quantity. He had been elected County Judge as a Populist-fusion candidate and the Populist party had disbanded. Mr. Miller was an officeholder without a party and wanted to be re-elected. I knew that he had been a loyal Republican and had voted for the negro candidate Asbury and I insisted that he could regain the fellowship of the Republicans, but the Judge decided his chances were best with the Democrats.

I dislike to debate these matters with Mr. Miller since he has declined to debate them with his opponent, Mr. Rogers. However, the truth has been told. JNO. H. THOMAS CERALVO, KY. Miss May Wood, Yost, Ky., is visiting friends and relatives here. Mr. Henry Tinsley, Central City, spent several days here last week. Our school is progressing nicely with Mr. G. W. White teacher. Rev. C. W. Shugart attended conference at Bowling Green last week. Mr. Milton Parks and family spent Tuesday here. Mr. Marlon Ashby and Miss Carrie

Get the Most Out of Your Food

You don't and can't if your stomach is weak. A weak stomach does not digest all that is ordinarily taken into it. It gets tired easily, and what it fails to digest is wasted.

Among the signs of a weak stomach are: uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, and disagreeable belching. "I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla at different times for stomach troubles, and a run down condition of the system, and have been greatly benefited by its use. I would not be without it in my family. I am troubled especially in summer with weak stomach and nausea and find Hood's Sarsaparilla invaluable." E. B. LICKMAN, W. Chester, Pa.

It Happened in a Drug Store.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." The remedy owes its great popularity and extensive sale in a large measure to the personal recommendations of people who have been cured by its use. It is for sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

Business Department.

This Department is one of the strongest of our School. It is, by far, better now than ever before at this season of the year. Students are constantly entering this work and pursuing it successfully. You may enter at any time and get classes to suit you. We continue the entire year, so you need not fear falling to get through on time. We would advise every young person to take a business course in some school, far by so doing, you may come in touch with the business world and meet successfully all the demands of the day. We give the most practical work that can be had and learn our students to transact business from actual experience. Our graduates are thoroughly qualified to hold good positions as bookkeepers or stenographers. We aid our students in getting work to suit them. There are always positions for the competent. Let the students do their part and we will do ours, then success will surely follow.

Sensible records is illustrated by the following ill-tempered interview reported by Mr. Wm. Bryant, of Rander.

Mr. Smith—"Billy, what is that g-d-d-d lie they have been telling on me about voting against the Two Weeks Pay Bill?"

Mr. Bryant—"I don't know, only what I have seen in THE HARTFORD REPUBLICAN."

Mr. Smith—"That is a damned lie and everything in that paper is a g-d-d-d lie."

Mr. Bryant—"There was a crowd here the other night to hear that question discussed."

Mr. Smith—"Bill! you know that it was agreed that we were not to stamp the county in debate."

Mr. Bryant—"I have not seen the Herald, but saw the reported agreement only in the REPUBLICAN, and you say that everything in that paper is a damned lie."

Mr. Smith—"I'll see you at the fair in the afternoon."
